

Reference project

Functional test application for CGM sensor

EXCO supports the development of a CGM device by delivering software that uses wireless communication. EXCO ensures compliance to the medical device regulations.

Implementation

- fast release of software-Releases through agile development methods, continuous integration and DevOps toolchain
- automated test process
- combination of V-modell and agile methods
- Compliance to all medical device regulations throughout the product life cycle

Client benefits

- development of compliant software for web, app and embedded projects.

Client

Manufacturer of medical devices, Mannheim

Your expert contact - IT Solutions

David Schindler

T+49 6233 73778-233

Email contact